Understanding the Biblical Background

The Story of the Lame Man in Acts

The story of the lame man being healed is primarily found in the Book of Acts, chapter 3. It narrates how Peter and John, two of Jesus' apostles, encountered a man who was lame from birth, sitting at the temple gate called Beautiful. The man was begging for alms, as was common for those unable to work due to disability. Peter, filled with faith, said to him, "Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk." The man was instantly healed, and he began to walk, leaping and praising God.

While the story is often associated with Peter, some teachings and crafts may also include Paul's ministry, emphasizing the broader theme of healing and faith. The craft project, however, primarily revolves around the story of Peter's healing miracle, as it is a well-known biblical event.
